

Introduction to Japanese Studies

This course is registered to the JICA Development Studies Program.

- Online class (video lecture)
- Mainly for graduate students; but undergrads are also welcome for auditing.
- Open for both International and Japanese students.

Lecturer's Name	Department	Lecture Title
Yang Yu, Kramer Sven	Faculty of Humanities	Introduction: Perspectives and Methods of Japanese Studies
Schweizer Anton	Faculty of Humanities	Japan through Western Eyes: from Japonism to Manga
Carter Caleb	Faculty of Humanities	Green Temples and Shrines: Buddhism and Shinto in the Age of Climate Change
Kubo Tomoyuki	Faculty of Humanities	The languages of Japan
Kramer Sven	Faculty of Humanities	Political and Administrative Reforms during the Second Half of the 19th Century
Van Goethem Ellen	Faculty of Humanities	Keeping history alive: Historical reconstructions and reenactments in Modern Japan
Fujii Hidemichi	Faculty of Economics	Economic development and Social change in Japan
Akashi Tomonori	University Archives	History of Kyushu University, etc
Kojima Ryu	Faculty of Law	Finding Social Norms in Traditional Japanese Culture: An Example of Hakata Gion Yamakasa Festival
Onjo Akio	Faculty of Humanities	Governing the urban space: urbanization and sanitation in modern Japan
Takano Yasushi	Faculty of Humanities	Harakiri (1962, dir. Masaki Kobayashi) and Japanese Society
Ogata Kazuo	Institute of Tropical Agriculture	Agricultural Development in Japan: A Short History of 150 Years
Watanabe Koichiro	Faculty of Engineering	The Development of Japan's Mining Industry and Environmental Problems
Taki Motoo	Office for Coordination of International Affairs	Brief History of Japan's Official Development Assistance (ODA)
Yang Yu	Faculty of Humanities	Aftermath: Visualizing the New Paradigm

For details or any inquiries, pls contact to:

Email: ku-jicadsp@jimu.kyushu-u.ac.jp